Excluding Buyer's payment obligations under an agreement or these GTCS, any whole or partial, temporary or permanent, delayed, obstructed or impeded performance by Seller or Buyer shall be excused without liability on the occurrence of a Force Majeure Event until such Force Majeure Event ceases. A "Force Majeure Event" shall mean circumstances beyond a Party's foreseeable or commercially reasonable control, including, without limitation, those related to: war, acts of terrorism, acts of God, embargoes, actions or requests of any government, changes in any applicable law, rule or regulation, foreign or domestic, or any agency or subdivision thereof, strikes, labor disputes, casualties, fires, accidents, any impediments, changes, difficulties or restrictions whatsoever on the production, manufacture, supply (including any change in distance of the supply routes), receipt, transportation, exportation and/or importation of raw or auxiliary materials, labor, fuel, parts or machinery for the product, and stock shortages. 17. Termination. Unless otherwise prohibited by applicable law, in Seller's sole discretion and without liability therefor or prejudice to any other right or remedy available to Seller, Seller shall be entitled to suspend performance or to terminate an agreement by notifying Buyer writing, in the event: (i) Buyer is placed in receivership, declared bankrupt, files a petition for its own bankruptcy or liquidation, requests a general suspension of payment, makes an assignment for the benefit of creditors, becomes insolvent, or ceases its business in any other manner; (ii) where changed circumstances make performance of an agreement impossible or so burdensome and/or disproportionately costly that Seller's compliance with an agreement cannot reasonably be required; or (iii) Seller reasonably believes that Buyer is or will be unable to meet its obligations under an agreement and Buyer fails to offer adequate security for the performance of its obligations. Either Party may terminate an agreement if (i) the other Party materially defaults in complying with any of its obligations herein or under any agreement and fails to remedy such default within net thirty (30) days (net ten (10) days for payment obligations) following receipt of written notice to cure. Should any agreement be terminated for any reason, all debts and/or payments owed to Seller by Buyer for Seller's full or partial performance shall become immediately due. Regardless of the conclusion of any agreement, obligations hereunder concerning confidentiality, indemnification, limitations of liability, language, forum, and those by their nature and context intended to continue shall so survive, and these GTCS shall continue to survive and apply to all aspects arising from or related to an agreement and delivery or service(s) already (in whole or in part) performed or received by Buyer.

Any data, material, process and information shall be considered to be Confidential Information hereunder (i) if Seller has marked them as such, (ii) if Seller, electronically, orally or in writing, has advised the Buyer of their confidential nature, or (iii) if, due to their character or nature, a reasonable person in a like position and under like circumstances would treat them as confidential.

20. Miscellaneous. Neither Buyer nor Seller may assign any of its rights or obligations arising from an agreement without the written consent of the other Party, on the understanding that Seller may assign its obligations under an agreement to any corporation, subsidiary or affiliate of Seller subject to prior written notice to Buyer. If Seller and Buyer are unable to settle any claim, demand, accusation, expense or damage, or the like arising hereunder or from an agreement or any breach thereof, Buyer must bring legal action within one (1) year of such cause of action having arisen, failing which all relevant claims shall become barred. Nothing contained in these GTCS nor any agreement made by Seller may be modified or waived except as agreed to in writing by Seller. Seller's delay, omission or failure to enforce any right, power, or remedy shall not be considered a waiver of any such right, power or remedy, nor shall it impair the exercise thereof by Seller at any time thereafter. The rights or remedies set forth herein are in addition to any other rights or remedies Seller may have at law or in equity. If any provision of hereunder and/or in any agreement shall be contrary to the laws or jurisdiction in which the same shall be sought to be enforced, the illegality or unenforceability of any such provision shall not affect the other terms, covenants, terms or conditions hereof, and the remainder of these GTCS and/or an agreement, other than that part held to be illegal or unenforceable, shall be valid and enforced to fullest extent permitted by law. No rule of construction applies to the disadvantage of Seller on the basis that Seller put forward these GTCS or any part of an agreement. Buyer represents and warrants that it shall comply with all applicable laws in connection with undertaking its obligations and it understands and shall comply with the U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act, the U.K. Bribery Act and all other applicable anti-bribery and anti-corruption laws of the jurisdictions under which Buyer is or may be acting hereunder or under any agreement.
